APRIL 2017

PASTOR'S PAGE

Over the past 18 months, two teams have been working on future planning for Our Savior's. The one team considered our building use. Their plan was affirmed by the annual meeting, and a specific proposal will come to the congregation shortly for final approval.

The other team spent a lot of time listening to different groups within the congregation. How do we see God at work in our midst? What do we discern God's calling to be?

At the council meeting in March, they presented a new vision statement:

*We are a church centered in Christ,
inviting all into a community of worship,
nurturing all to be disciples of Jesus.
Together we reach out to make a difference
here and throughout the world.*

The council really liked it! So there it is – our new vision statement. And what better time to ponder our vision, then looking ahead and seeing the cross and the empty tomb beckoning!

We are a church centered in Christ...

Of course we are, right? Look, Good Friday and Easter (the "Triduum") are (or should be) our focal point. To be honest, that's not always true. Frequently we get sidetracked and diverted. Like the color of the carpet, or how balanced our budget looks, or whether or not the thermostat is set right. But while we pay some necessary attention to those matters, they are not what we are about. We are about Jesus, the crucified and risen Christ. That is our core. Nothing more, nothing less.

...inviting all into a community of worship...

We worship. That's what we do. On Saturday, Sunday, special days, we worship. But we also worship in our daily lives. In our thoughts and our prayers, but also in our words and our actions. What we say and do, every day, is a part of our worship. And what are we worshiping? The crucified and risen Christ, of course! The one of Good Friday and Easter.

The one who died for me...and for all people. That's why invite all. And "all" means "ALL!" We are a place for all of God's children, even those who might not be welcome in other places. And we don't just welcome – we invite – we reach out intentionally to let all know that this is a place for them!

...nurturing all to be disciples of Jesus.

Moreover, we seek to "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19) – and of all ages. This congregation has a special ministry to families, children, and teens. God gifts us with them, that we make of them disciples of Jesus. But we also treasure other generations, who also seek to be faithful, and who have much to share. We want to make multiple generations disciples of the crucified and risen Jesus who makes the decisive difference between life and death! Why? Because the people of God, the Body of Christ, is made up of ALL of God's children, young and old alike!

Together we reach out to make a difference here and throughout the world.

But we're not done yet. We – you and I, young and old, all of God's people, have a calling. We are to be disciples. Disciples here in the midst of this congregation, and in what this congregation does inside our walls, in the community around us, and throughout the world. Together, we make a difference. Together we change the world. Together, we impact the lives of people!

But also as we go out, each one of us, in our journeys of life. Seven days a week, with our friends and families, even with strangers, we are called by God to proclaim in what we say and what we do that the crucified and risen Jesus makes the difference in our lives – and in theirs too. We are called to bring good news to broken people in a very complicated and fearful world.

So, that's our vision. Or maybe better yet, God's vision for us! In the new life we have in Jesus, we go out and proclaim that new life to a hurting world. Centered in Christ...inviting all...nurturing disciples...making a difference.

The call of a faithful God, to be anchored in what God has done for us, that we may proclaim what God is doing for others. Good Friday and Easter at work in me, in you, and in all those whom we encounter.

I like it!

2017 MINISTRIES HANDBOOK

The Ministries Handbook for 2017 is available in the Gathering Area. The resource includes a listing of the Staff, Church Council, Committees, Altar Guild, Circles and WELCA information.

CHANGES AFOOT!

There are several significant changes at Our Savior's, coming down in the next few months...

- Red Balloon, the day care provider in the lower level, has announced plans to close their West Salem operation, due to space and staffing issues. We knew they would be seeking a new location, leaving our building, but we had hoped they would remain in the community. Red Balloon's last day will be June 9, with the rest of the month for moving out. After 32 years, that's a big change for Our Savior's! We will seek to find a way to acknowledge and give thanks for the ministry that has taken place over those years.
- We continue to move forward with plans to repurpose the space in our building. We hope to have a special congregational meeting before summer sets in to approve the expenditure necessary to prepare our building for our future ministry needs.
- The Rental Management Committee, in response to the annual meeting, is exploring the possibility of selling the parsonage. Any decision to sell the parsonage will require congregational approval at a special congregational meeting. We will keep you posted!

CONGREGATION COUNCIL REVIEW

The Congregation Council met on Monday, March 13, with President Steve Ahles calling the meeting to order. At this meeting the council:

- Appointed Jake Iliff to fill the open three-year council position for one year, with a special election at the 2018 annual meeting.

- Began with devotions and discussion around the proposed new vision statement.
- Approved the minutes from the February council meeting. Received and reviewed financial reports and reports from the pastors.
- Continued to discuss same gender marriages and how to listen with care to all sides. Decided to explore the process other congregations have used.
- Voted to adopt the new vision statement for the congregation.
- Heard a report from the task force on building space. Authorized up to $500 for expenses in preparing a proposal for the congregation.
- Authorized the liquidation of assets in the Carol Ann Noel bequest, in order to disburse to the Mission Endowment Fund and other ministries.
- Appointed Cathryn Bottem, Lynette Ender and Judy Gilbert as delegates to the Synod Assembly. Two more will be needed.
- Heard that Dennis Manthei, Linda Berg and Jim Michelson will be reviewing the financial assets of the congregation.
- Heard an updated on Red Balloon and their plans to leave the building by the end of June.

The council meets again on Monday, April 10. See Steve Ahles or one of the pastors if you have any questions.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

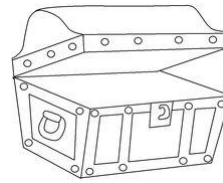

It's hard to believe we are already three-fourths of the way through our Sunday School year – as of this writing, only eight more classes! Where has the time gone? This continues to be a fun group of children who gather each week to watch our Whirl friends introduce us to the “theme” of the day, sing songs, and hear about Jesus' life and his love for us.

We continue on our Lenten journey, but look forward to Easter Sunday when we will unbury the Alleluia's that have been packed away for the last six weeks and celebrate the empty tomb and Jesus' resurrection.

The children are continuing to get to know their “adopted grandparents” and look forward to having them follow the class on their faith journey.

Sugar Creek Bible Camp again seeks our support through their "horse" project. A horse poster is in the Gathering Area, with the request that we mark off the squares for $20 apiece. Put your name in a square, and make your gift – make sure you note Summer is coming ... really it is!

And with summer comes the new life of trees budding, grass growing, and flowers blooming. Here at church we have a dedicated group of three "not as young as they used to be" ladies who make sure the flowers are planted to make our building inviting. But once the flowers are planted, they need to be watered. Can you spare a few minutes to help water our flowers? If we have enough able bodies, we can schedule a week at a time, and before you know it, the summer will be over! If you are able to help, please speak with Pastor Jean or Eleanor Lee.

SALVATION ARMY MEALS

The Salvation Army continues to provide an evening meal for the hungry in La Crosse, and you can join in that ministry by serving the meal. Our Savior's takes the second Friday of the month, April 14. We are there from 4:15-5:15 p.m. – no preparation or clean up, just serving and being the presence of Jesus as we do "God's work with our hands." We look to have up to six servers, and families are welcome, including children as young as ten. A sign-up sheet is on the youth bulletin board outside Pastor Jon's office.

It's a simple thing ... but carries a great impact ...
Anyone can do it ... there is no age requirement ...
All it takes is a smiling face and an outstretched hand ...

What is it?

Ushering in worship!

Why not share a few minutes of your time on a Saturday night or Sunday morning to be a welcoming presence, hand out bulletins, collect the offering, shepherd people up for communion, and count noses ...

On the job training is available!

It's easy to sign up ...

Choose the day/week/month and time you would like to serve ... sign up on line by going to <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/20fo44ca5a629a7f85-ushers> or call the church office.

JUNE DAIRY DAYS

Yes, it's true – June Dairy Days are fast approaching! Our Savior's has two responsibilities – the Fun Run, and sharing the food booth with St. Leo's. We need your help – our share of the proceeds supports and strengthens our youth ministry. Sign-up sheets will be out following Easter, so watch for them!

Paul and Matilda Wegner were German immigrants, who, after a visit to a grotto, decided they would build their own grotto on their farm.

Please join the OWLS on April 27 at 1:30 p.m. for Norma Schmig's presentation on the grotto located north of Sparta and learn of Norma's relationship to the Wagner's.

Jason and Valerie were married in June of 2013, and have been in West Salem the past two years. They have a 12-year-old Chihuahua named Paco. Together they enjoy going to rummage sales, watching movies, playing cards, and spending time with family and friends.

REFORMATION REFLECTIONS

Another installment in a yearlong reflection on the Reformation, what it was, and what it means to us today.

The Augsburg Confession, written in the midst of the Reformation tumult, is the core statement of what Lutherans believe. It was produced in 1530, thirteen years after young professor Martin Luther posted the Ninety-Five Theses in Wittenberg. A lot had happened in those thirteen years. Thanks to Luther's creative exploration of the gospel and its implications, his colorful personality (opponents had other adjectives), and the availability of the printing press, his views on religious matters as well as the politics of the day had been widely distributed. In many parts of central Europe, people were responding favorably, to the consternation of the Church of Rome, which had been accustomed to being the single expression of the Christian church in that region.

In the sixteenth century there was no nation called Germany. Rather, the various duchies and electorates made up a key part of the Holy Roman Empire, a remnant of the European territory once governed by ancient Rome. For much of Reformation times, Charles V governed as Holy Roman Emperor. He had watched his empire become increasingly fractured by divisions among princes favorable to Luther and other reformers, and those who kept their loyalty to Rome and the pope. The emperor needed the princes to be unified, not least because a Turkish invasion of Europe had reached the gates of Vienna. And so, in January 1530, the emperor called for a diet, or general assembly, in the German city of Augsburg. He asked the German princes and imperial cities to explain their religious convictions.

And so, reforming theologians and the rulers who supported them headed for Augsburg—among them, Luther's colleague Philipp Melanchthon and his pastor, Johannes Bugenhagen. Luther himself could not accompany them because he had been named an outlaw at a previous diet. He had also been excommunicated by the pope. He was, however, consulted on the final text via mail.

Upon their arrival in Augsburg, Melanchthon, consulting with previous preliminary documents, composed the final text of the confession. The German princes who favored the Reformation viewpoint agreed to it and signed it. On June 25, 1530, the Augsburg Confession was read aloud in German before the emperor and presented in written form in both German and Latin.

The Augsburg Confession (sometimes called Augustana from its Latin title) is now found in a larger collection of Lutheran confessional writings called The Book of Concord. It contains twenty-eight parts, or articles. The first twenty-one of these stress points of agreement with the Roman Church of the time, though sometimes with crucial differences. In the last seven, the writers lay out what they see as abuses committed by the church.

The Augsburg Confession continues to guide the teachings of Lutheran churches to this day. Though a product of troubled times, it is filled with optimism and hope as it bears witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ.

CARDS FOR SHUT-INS

Don't forget to stop by the "Card Ministry" table (located outside of the Church Office) each weekend when you are at worship to sign the cards for our shut-ins. You really do make a difference in the lives of those who cannot be with us.

Thank you to the prayer shawl ladies ...

... convey to the group
our heartfelt thanks for these shawls. I am typing through tears as it becomes more and more apparent that angels do not necessarily float around in gowns and wings - they are sitting in chairs with crochet hook or knitting needles, not always realizing the impact their work will have on the recipient. You can just "feel" the love when you touch them. It's almost as if the lace-like texture was designed to let sunshine in and sorrow to leave. ... thank you good ladies of Our Savior's prayer shawl ministry. May God bless you all.

Jim & Diane

Thank you so much for the shawl that you made for me to help protect and love me thru my battle with Lymphoma cancer. ... The shawl is absolutely beautiful and my favorite color. ☺ May God guide me and protect me thru this battle. Thank you.

Celebrating our Resident Theologians...

Disciples come in all shapes and sizes. We have much to learn from our “elders” as these resident theologians have insights and stories to share. Alice Pfaff graciously allowed us to share a glimpse into her story. Alice, 88 years young, has been making baby quilts for baptisms since 2004 – what a gift that ministry is to our littlest ones.

Alice’s advice to new disciples of Jesus ...

God sees us through hard times and heartaches. Alice has always gone to church, because that’s what you do. Church has always been an important part of her family’s life – from her own growing up, to raising her children.

Alice’s favorite Bible passage ... because ...

John 3:16 (“For God so loved the world ...”) and Psalm 23 (“The Lord is my shepherd ...”). These were passages Alice had to memorize during confirmation and they have stuck with her all these years. As she recites the words, they speak to her and bring comfort.

Alice’s earliest memories of church ... As a very young child, Alice went to the Norwegian Lutheran Church in Barre Milles. When she was a little older, the family went to Trinity in La Crosse and that is where she was confirmed, and she and Myron were married. Alice and Myron live in Bangor and came to Our Savior’s just before their children were born. Alice didn’t drive when her children were young and Vicky Johnson’s in-laws would pick up Alice’s children and bring them to Sunday School here at Our Savior’s. Alice remembers as a young child walking over the hills from her family farm in Russlan Coulee to her cousin’s farm in Irish Coulee (which was several miles) and then they would be driven into La Crosse to Trinity for confirmation classes. Now that was dedication to class!

Thank you for sharing, Alice! Please keep Alice and all of our “senior” members (and “resident theologians”) in your prayers.

MAKING YOUR LEGACY WORK FOR YEARS TO COME!

A series of articles on how you can support the work of Jesus Christ through planned giving. This month – Your Will.

The primary way (though not the only way) we can make gifts is to name ELCA ministries as beneficiaries in our wills or living trusts. BUT, these gifts cannot be made if you do not have a will or living trust. The federal government says that 70% of the Americans that die each year do not have a will. You may have many reasons why you have not made a will – we have all either heard or used, "I am too busy," "They are too expensive" or "I do not need a will yet," as an excuse to put off making a will. If you do not have an up-to-date will or living trust, your estate may not go to the persons in your life who need your continued financial support after your death. Further, the ministries you have supported in your life may not receive your money in death. Ask yourself if a will or living trust is an important way to both witness and carry out your faith. As you think about your life and your estate, like so many other Christians, you will surely answer that question "yes." Be a willing witness to your faith – make or update your will or living trust today.

For more information: Contact Timothy Knutson, ELCA Foundation at (414) 477-9979 or timothy.knutson@elca.org, or Pastor Larry Westfield, ELCA Foundation at (262) 224-9574 or larry.westfield@elca.org.

SIMPLY GIVING

As a new year begins, simplify your life by signing up for "Simply Giving." Simply Giving is an electronic transfer of your financial gifts to Our Savior's. Contact the office or one of the pastors for more information.
