Pastor's Page

April showers bring May Flowers...maybe, but now that Easter and Confirmation are behind us, I've got "sabbatical on my mind!"

In late May I begin my sabbatical leave, my first in 33 years as a pastor. A sabbatical leave is a time of rest and renewal, the opportunity to take a few steps away from pastoral ministry, to engage in some reflection, and then to come back with restored enthusiasm and energy. The La Crosse Area Synod policy includes a sabbatical leave for pastors, and it is a part of our call package. That has also included setting aside some financial resources.

My sabbatical begins May 20th with a part time week of work. May 25/26th will be my first weekend away, and after that I will be on leave. I will return for a part time week August 19th and be in worship August 24/25 (just in time for "Gospel on the Green!")

During my absence Pastor Jean will be the pastoral presence, other than three weeks of vacation she will take. Next year will be Pastor Jean's turn for a sabbatical – and I'll "hold down the fort."

So, what's happening on my sabbatical?

- A tour of Germany, with Pastor Jean and Rebecca, including Wittenberg (Martin Luther's home) and Dachau (the first Nazi concentration camp).
- A day trip to Wausau, and a week trip to New York, to gather stories from aunts on both sides of my family, and then to collect those stories into a family narrative.
- Time to learn more about photography and experiment with GIMP, an open source program similar to Photoshop.
- Broadening my horizons with some book reading – can I read one book a week? Books on the list include:
 - German Boy: A Child in War (Wolfgang Samuel)
 - Making Sense of Martin Luther (David Lose)
 - Gettysburg Rebels (Tom McMillan)

- Blood, Sweat and Chalk (Tom Layden)
- The Good War (Studs Terkel)
- Red Fortress (Catherine Merridale)
- Old Man River (Paul Schneider)
- 1491 (Charles Mann)
- For Labor, Race, and Liberty (Bruce Mouser)
- Worship at neighboring congregations
- A little more intentional exercise, including bike riding.
- Going fishing with my daughter!

Meanwhile...here at Our Savior's...Pastor Jean will carry on the ministry as she leads worship, provides pastoral care, handles funerals, visits hospitals, and anything else that comes up.

But wait, there's more!

We have arranged for pulpit supply for seven weekends. Pastor Jean will usually lead worship, but other voices will share the message. And not just any message, but a presence and message that reflects our ministry. Here's the plan:

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| June 2 | Dori Jensen, School of Theology student |
| June 16 | Bishop Arends' video sermon during synod assembly
(Pastor Jean on vacation). |
| June 23 | Pastor Barbara Bruneau, representing the synod, as a member of the synod assembly planning committee
(Pastor Jean on vacation). |
| June 30 | Mission trip report |
| July 13 | Becki Murphy, graduate of Viterbo's Servant Leadership
Master's degree program |
| July 27 | Pastor Ben Morris, Lutheran Campus Ministry (Pastor
Jean on vacation). |
| August 11 | Pastor Kathy Ingbritsen, World Hunger Task Force |

Come and hear another preacher, but also learn about our ministries and the ministries with which we partner.

But wait, there's YET more!

We have Vacation Bible School this year – with some twists! VBS will be in the evening (with a meal included), and will be for ALL ages, including Moms, Dads, and grandparents. Pretty much everyone. Come one, come all, beat the “dog days of summer blues” and have a blast doing it! Watch for details...

And then (what, even more???), the intergenerational mission trip to New Mexico. Service, fellowship, growth, fun...for kids and adults (together). And next year? Maybe New Orleans?

Now, I will confess that I am looking forward to this time, not because I can get away from Our Savior's (that will be the tough part), but because it will give me time and space to recharge and refresh. In the end, however, I expect that while I'm looking forward to May 20th (day one), I will really look forward to August 24/25, when I worship with you again!

Until then, I've got work to do. I'll need to get confirmation for next year (can't wait until late August!). And I'll want to make sure peaches and other ministries are ready to roll, and that those carrying out those ministries are comfortable and confident.

Which brings me to two final observations...first, thank you to Our Savior's for giving me this opportunity. You have been a great gift to me (and to us) for over six years, and you are still gifting us!

And second, as I prepare to take a step or two back, I am confident that you are in great hands. Pastor Jean will do what she has always done – faithful and passionate ministry in the name of Jesus. Really, can you do better than that?

So enjoy the summer, remain faithful in all your daily discipleship, and don't forget to gather in worship to be fed by God's gifts of Word and Sacrament! And I'll see you at Gospel on the Green!

Pastor Jon

Forward: Fearless and Faithful!

The Forward: Fearless and Faithful team has met with our coach (Carla Stanton, from First Lutheran, Onalaska), and gathered with other “F3” congregations at our first retreat. We are now moving ahead “fearless and faithful.” Please keep our team in your prayers as they begin their work together.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

We have had a great year of Sunday School and will be sad to see it end. The kids have had wonderful teachers who shared their faith and witness. Our friends from Whirl introduced our lessons each week, along with Pastor Jean. Thank you for joining us each week, for being good learners, and for sharing your offerings for God's Global Barnyard. We will end our time together on Mother's Day (May 12) and celebrate our year together – ending with an ice cream social! Our classroom grandparents have been invited to join us that day too.

And ... Don't forget your offering for God's Global Barnyard! The "friendly competition" between our classes is almost complete. As of Palm Sunday, our 3rd grade class continues to hold the lead at $210.50 in offering, while the Kindergarten and 5th grade classes are back and forth with the Kindergarten class now at $200, and the 5th grade class closing in at $193.11. So far for the year, altogether we have collected $923.36. We are so close, can we make it to $1,000 by Mother's Day? The more animals in our barnyard, the more we can help to end hunger.

Sunday School Offering

Our Sunday School offerings this year are being collected for God's Global Barnyard. Each week the classes are adding to our barnyard depending on how much offering was collected the week before. The more that a class collects, the bigger the animal that is added. Our barnyard is bursting at the seams! Way to go kids! Check out the barnyard between the pastor's offices to see our progress.

Important Dates

Sunday, May 12 (Mother's Day) - Grades 4K-5 sing during 10:30 am worship

 Note: this is the last day of Sunday School

Parents can you help ...

We are looking for parents to help with our annual Sunday School end of year ice cream social on May 12th! We will provide the ice cream, if you could help serve it. We could also use some bars or cookies to go along with the ice cream. If you can help with this, please speak to Pastor Jean.

Mark your calendars now and watch for more information in the coming months!

Angie Hemker is heading up the project again this year - please contact her if you are able to help. Watch for details how you can be a part of this ministry. In the meantime, our Hungry Jar offerings for May will help support this ministry to feed the children of our community this summer with nutritious meals.

US Postal Service Food Drive

May 11 is the US Postal Service Food Drive. Community Care and Share Food Pantry Board is asking for volunteers on Saturday, May 11 anytime from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. to sort the 5000 pounds of food received. All ages welcome.

Sorting will take place in the basement of Our Savior's. Questions call/text Lynette Ender at 608-386-5310.

Garden Plots

Space remains available for any members of the congregation interested in establishing a garden in 2019. The garden size can be tailored to your needs and interests. If you'd like to talk with a prior year gardener, let me know. The plot is located 1½ miles north of West Salem directly off County Road M. If you are interested in reserving a parcel or have questions call Jim at 786-1236.

June Dairy Days

The 50th(!) June Dairy Days is May 31, June 1 and June 2. As in the past, OSLC is particularly active in two areas and we need your help! The Fun Run is held Saturday, June 1, and volunteers are needed to help with registration, set-up, and serving as crossing guards from 6:30 - 9:30 a.m. on Saturday morning. AND, there are LOTS of opportunities to help at the Food Stand (at Village Park) which serves food all weekend. Grillers, servers, ticket workers, window workers, and shift leaders are needed. Youth and their families are especially encouraged to help out on all shifts. Signup sheets for helping will be available at church and online at <https://signup.com/go/KivDdtY>. In order to indicate you're with our group, please add "OSLC" after your name so we know which folks are coming from which group. If you are a family signing up for several spots on the same shift but don't have separate emails, you can add a comment with the family member's name.

Also watch for information on the Medallion Hunt, with clues written by our own Errol Kindschy! If you love June Dairy Days and want to have it continue next year, please consider attending the JDD planning meeting on May 5 at Westview, 6:30 pm, as the future of the event is dependent upon having greater involvement. We don't want this to be the final year of such a wonderful community event!

SOS Band

Our very own SOS Band will once again be playing at June Dairy Days! Join us Sunday, June 2 at 11:00 a.m. at the Gazebo in Village Park to hear 50 minutes of our band playing music we enjoy. Come on over after the 10:00 church service!

Flags of Honor

This year, the June Dairy Days committee is sponsoring a wonderful tribute to military personnel (past and present) with Flags of Honor, May 17-19 at the Village Park. You may sponsor a flag in someone's honor and/or stroll through the park that weekend to view the more than 600 American flags. (Volunteers to help with the respectful setup and takedown are welcome - contact Rita Schmitz for more information.) Information on Flag sponsorship (deadline May 12) can be found at www.junedairydays.com/content/events.

Welcome!

Welcome to Carolyn Karl! Carolyn was formally received by the Congregation Council on April 8, but has already made a big difference in our work together. She is in choir, Bible study, several fellowship groups, and a part of the Forward: Fearless and Faithful team.

Carolyn was born in Sumatra, what is now part of Indonesia. At age 9 she moved to the United States, where her father farmed tobacco in the Connecticut valley. She has a physical therapy degree from Boston University. Carolyn has four children, 11 grandchildren, and one great grandson. She lost her dear husband Joe in 2017, and then moved here from Tennessee. She says, "I love to be here and love the church!"

Our Savior's Loves New Members!

We love to welcome new partners in our life and work as disciples of Jesus! If you, or someone you know, is interested in joining Our Savior's, please contact one of the pastors. We'll get you set!

Prayer Labyrinth

With the arrival of warmer weather, and the melting of the snows, the prayer labyrinth is now open for business! There are still some improvements yet to be made, but feel free to stop by and “walk the labyrinth.”

How do you do that? As you approach the labyrinth you will see a grass path set apart by bricks. Enter the labyrinth slowly and deliberately, and as you follow the path, allow yourself to withdraw from the world around you, and enter a posture of prayer. Pray for your concerns as well as the needs of the world, but also spend some time in silence as you allow a good and gracious God to embrace you, and to speak to you.

As you wind around the labyrinth, you will come to the center. There, in the world, and yet also in your own world, take some further time to pray (in the near future there will be a bench on which to sit).

When you are ready, retrace your steps and wind your way back from the center to the edge. Continue to pray, listen, and reflect as you prepare to reenter the world and then go forth to live as a faithful disciple of Jesus!

Make use of the labyrinth as often as you wish, and invite others to do the same. Further improvements will include small signs with Bible passages to help in your reflections.

Thanks again to Kessler Goodenough for creating the labyrinth as his SEP for this year.

Boundaries Workshop

In early April Our Savior's hosted the La Crosse Area Synod "Boundaries Workshop." This event is required of pastors every 3-4 years, and helps them reflect and consider the appropriate boundaries for pastoral ministry. From its beginning as a reflection on sexual misconduct, the workshops now also address dating and romance, finances, and child safety. Even taking a good day off is part of boundary issues. The ELCA takes all these needs very seriously, and clergy are expected to engage in healthy relationships with parishioners (and others), and with themselves. Boundaries help us understand what is helpful and what is not.

Good boundaries are also important in the life of the congregation. Coming out of the workshop, the pastors have identified three boundary areas for us to continue to work on as a congregation:

- Child safety – we have a “child safe” policy that we will be reviewing, and if necessary, revising. It is important for us to provide a safe place for children, and to have the proper boundaries.
- Sexual harassment – we treasure all who are a part of our ministry. Using a model from another congregation, we will be creating a policy to cover pastors, lay employees, and volunteers. Sexual harassment will not be tolerated!
- Financial practices – over the past few years we have “tweaked” our system to ensure that our financial practices are clean and transparent. We want to continue that review, and maintain appropriate boundaries to ensure our financial integrity.

Finally, the workshop was a great success – almost 60 in attendance. Thank you to all the ladies who helped put on the lunch, and especially to Connie and Larry Blunck for ALL their hard work!

If you have any questions about boundaries in general, or just curious about them, see one of the pastors.

Staff Changes

As summer approaches we have some changes to our staff. We welcome Josh Corning as our new custodian. Josh has been our snow shovel-er for the past two winters, and filled in for us when we needed a quick, interim custodian. We are excited to have Josh working with us!

Meanwhile...

A note from Cat: After many hours of praying and soul searching, it is with a heavy heart that I have turned in my notice to end my position as the youth director here at Our Savior's. My last day will be August 31 to help as much as I can while Pastor Jon is on his sabbatical. I cannot emphasize enough how much I have appreciated the experiences I have gained from working with Our Savior's. I have learned so much and have been so blessed to work with everyone these last 2.5 years. I wanted to thank everyone for everything I have been taught, and these experiences are ones that I will carry with me forever. Thank you, and God bless all of you.

Thank you...

Thank You!

... to the April newsletter mailing crew - Connie & Larry Blunck, Bev Bockenbauer, Sandra Holthaus, Carolyn Karl, Judy Morzinski, Carol Peterson, Velma Schmidt, Mary & Rich Storandt, and Betty Whitlock.

Our Savior's Mission in the World God's Work...Our Hands... Prayer Shawls

Another in a series of ministries in which we are engaged as part of our faithful stewardship and discipleship.

The making and gifting of “shawls of comfort” for people in a time of need continues. A small group of crafters, about 4-6 members, comprised of multi-age, multi-talented individuals, gathers twice a month to do their work. Some have been doing this needlework for many years, others are learning a new to them skill, but all enjoy our time together. Some members do most of the shawl making at home, others work on it only at the group's twice-monthly meeting...whatever works for each is fine!

When the shawls are completed they are prayed over by the group members, and blessed at a worship service by one of the pastors. Shawls are given for a variety of reasons: illness, hospitalization, shut-ins, grieving, or other needs. Shawls are also given to older children or adults being baptized, and to parents of high school graduates. In addition, each year 20-25 are given to residents at Lakeview Health Care Center, and occasionally to the Dialysis Units at La Crosse medical centers.

The shawls are available for anyone, not only OSLC parishioners. A request to one of the pastors or a member of the group is all that is necessary to wrap someone you know in the love of our Savior, Jesus Christ, as well as being wrapped in the love of Our Savior's Lutheran Church.

We have been blessed by generous monetary donations, often memorials, or the gift of yarn itself. These gifts allow the donor to become a part of the prayer shawl ministry!

Your financial support makes this ministry of prayer to people in great need possible by providing yarn and space. Thank you for making a difference in the lives of hurting people by providing a ministry of hope in Jesus!

Congregation Council Review

The Congregation Council met on April 8, with President Lynette Ender presiding. At this meeting, the council:

- Discussed a portion of The Agile Church, and shared in prayer.
- Heard from Eric Ender and Pastor Jon on “Stewardship for All Seasons” and discussed its possibilities. Decided to continue the discussion at the May meeting.
- Received and approved the minutes from the February meeting. Received and reviewed the financial reports and pastoral reports for February and March.
- Appointed Eric Ender, Lynette Ender, and Nancy DeYoung, to join Wendy Kane, as voting members for the 2019 La Crosse Area Synod Assembly.
- Received updates on Forward: Fearless and Faithful and electronic giving options.
- Heard a report on the Synod Assembly caucus. Noted that the pre-assembly report acknowledges Pastor Jean’s 10th ordination anniversary and Pastor Mitzi’s retirement. It also shares that David Bersagel has resigned from the clergy roster of the ELCA.
- Heard about the recent Synod Boundaries workshop held at Our Savior’s. Pastor Jon suggested that, in light of the workshop, we review our child safety policy and our financial practices, and explore a sexual harassment policy.
- Received by transfer Carolyn Karl.
- Authorized the establishment of a brokerage account with Thrivent Financial to facilitate stock transfers.
- Received a letter of resignation from Cat Bottem as youth ministry director, effective August 31.

The council meets again on May 13. See one of the pastors or Lynette Ender if you have any questions.
