Two simple words ...
Thank you

It was stewardship Sunday, we celebrated the occasion with cake between services and upbeat music. As folks were invited to bring up their intent cards and place them in the baptismal font, we sang “We are marching in the light of God”, but changing the words to “we are giving in the light of God.” Pastor Jon then continued with his sermon, talking about how God is like an apple – there are many things one can do with an apple and there are many things that God does in our lives. As we sang “we are basking in the light of God”, the children gave everyone in the congregation an apple. In the silence that followed the end of the song, one could hear a still, small voice say with clarity, confidence, and boldness - “THANK YOU!”

We may have smiled as we heard those words, but it should have also made us stop and think. Two simple words ... thank you... but words that were heartfelt, sincere, and unexpected in that moment. Perhaps it takes an innocent child to teach the rest of us.

How often do we stop and say thank you? How often do we take the time to acknowledge an act of kindness, a gift, words of comfort and care, the mere presence of another? How often do we thank God for all that he has gifted to us, not the least of which is our very life?

Thank you - There is power in those two simple words. Power to create relationship, power to let someone know how special they are, power to affirm an action, power to be faithful.

As I sat in worship these last week’s listening to the various voices sharing their stewardship stories, I couldn’t help but think of a time in my life – long ago when I was single, living on my own, with all of the bills and commitments that come along with that – when I was asked to do a temple talk on my own stewardship. I really didn't feel qualified to do it, and talking in front of people really scared me. After praying and reflecting, God gave me the courage to say thank you.

I remember sharing how I would look in my wallet on a Sunday morning, find a couple of dollars that I thought I could spare, and put them in the offering plate. I figured that was good enough, I was doing my part. But the more involved I became in the life of my church, the more I saw what we were doing, the more I knew we could do more, the more I wanted to be a part of making those things happen. I also realized I wasn't stopping to say thank you to God for all that he had given me. I wasn't giving out of gratitude, I was just going through the motions. So, I decided to do things differently, I would increase my giving and I would write the check to church first – first fruits, if you will. It was a bold decision and it took courage to do it – it took faith. But in all the years that followed, I never lacked for anything, my bills always got paid, I wasn't deprived of doing things with my friends or traveling with my family, and it felt really good! And I was thankful.

Back to today ... Thank you to those who shared your stories, to those who listened to the stories and took to heart the words and emotions and challenges that were shared, and who acted boldly as you thought about your own stewardship, and your own relationship with God. Thank you to God for being here in this place, gifting us with life and people who create community and who do ministry.

Thankful to be walking with you,
Pastor Jean

We love new members! If you, or someone you know, is interested in membership, please contact Pastor Jon or Pastor Jean. Membership happens in several ways, so let's connect and see what works best for you. And if you are not ready to join, that's OK – we still welcome you to be a part of our ministries, and are grateful to God for your presence with us!

Sunday School News

Sunday School is rolling along as the children are learning about the stories of Jesus' teachings in the Gospel of Luke. They are an enthusiastic group who don't like to miss being introduced to our story by our Whirl friends. Each group sang once in church already and did a great job! They are now preparing for the Christmas programs coming up in mid-December.

We are doing things differently this year with our trips to the treasure box. Everyone is able to participate no matter how many times the children have attended Sunday school. We recently celebrated with 18 students who attended 6 times; 25 who attended 5 times; 19 who attended 4 times; 16 who attended 3 times; and 5 who attended once or twice. It's never too late to join us ...

And remember ... we love to have friends come too!

Our Sunday School offerings this year are being collected for Lutheran Disaster Response (LDR). In the aftermath of the devastation of Hurricane Dorian in August, LDR is on site with people and resources to help with the clean-up process and the rebuilding of lives. And we want to help, too! First comes the removal of the garbage and rubble left behind from the storm. Then the rebuilding. Once the debris is cleaned up, we will be adding bricks, windows, and doors to our house as we help to rebuild shelter for those who have become homeless. Check out our progress in the weeks to come.

Through late October we have collected $277.

Hungry Jar Offering for November - Lutheran Campus Ministry

Lutheran Campus Ministry – LaCrosse (LCM) serves the campuses of UW-L, Western Technical College, and Viterbo University. Partnering with United Campus Ministry, and sharing the facilities of Common Ground, and under the leadership of Pastor Ben Morris, LCM seeks to engage young adults in the midst of some of the most challenging and chaotic years they will encounter – college life! Some are life-long Lutherans, some come from other traditions, and some come without any background. For all, LCM is a place of both challenge and safety. They discover God’s call to faithful living, but also God’s gifts of grace in Jesus Christ. All of this is experienced in the context of a community that seeks to nurture and grow faith and faithful living. Students at LCM worship together, gather for Bible study and reflection, reach out to other students who are searching and sometimes hurting. Most of all they seek to be a voice of welcome and healing in a broken world! Through our support we can make a difference in the lives of young adults.

Breakfast Club

A reminder that Breakfast Club is Sunday mornings from 9:15 -10:15 a.m. in the downstairs kitchen for grades 6 -12.

Breakfast club is growing in numbers of wonderful kids who share a meal and have great conversations. The format has changed a little – we have a menu for each Sunday and each student gets to be involved in the whole process from making the breakfast to cleanup. It is such a great joy to see everyone come together for an hour to grow as individuals each week.

Come and join us ... and remember friends are welcome!

As our students are either away from home or studying in challenging environments, we keep them in our thoughts and prayers. This month please pray for: Dagan Hemker (UW-Madison), Emily Steele (UW-Eau Claire), Danielle Schultz (UW-L), Jarron Beckley (Viterbo), and Tayler Jones (UW-Whitewater).

SCHOOL KITS FOR LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF

Thanks to everyone who helped insure the success of the 2019 LWR school kit project. We completed and shipped 161 kits. A special thank you to all who took time to shop for and donate supplies, without which we'd have nothing to pack and ship. Thanks also to the Wednesday confirmation students for sorting, counting and organizing all the supplies; to the third grade Sunday school students for building 100 kits; and to Krystal Gander, Donald Miller and Eric Sorenson for transporting the school kits (and 248 quilts) to the boxcar in La Crosse for shipment to Maryland. A thank you also to WELCA for once again donating the kit backpacks. Tracking tags will again trace the kits to their eventual destinations. Over the past five years our kits have gone to Honduras, Nicaragua (2), Iraq, Mauritania, Rwanda and Georgia (2). Thanks to all!

“Time to Start Praying”!

As we approach the end of the year – and the start of a new one – we will be seeking new persons to share in the leadership and the ministry of Our Savior’s. Congregation Council, Mission Endowment, and voting members for the 2020 La Crosse Area Synod Assembly all need to be elected. On November 10 and 17, during worship, we will have some time to prayerfully consider those who among us have the gifts to share in these rolls.

But...don’t wait – time to start praying, right now! Pray that God will help you to see who might be gifted and guided to these ministries.

Shop Early ... change lives ...

The average American plans to spend over $600 on Christmas gifts this year. Yet many of us admit that the tradition of gift-giving leaves us with too much stuff and too few meaningful memories. With ELCA Good Gifts, you can find more than 50 life-changing, charitable gifts – such as a pair of goats, school fees, or a water well – gifts that make a difference in the lives of those who have little or nothing - and give a gift the world truly needs. Each gift can be given in honor of a friend or loved one, and you can send or download a personalized card to let them know about it. Shop now: ELCA.org/goodgifts or we will have our market up and running during the lutefisk dinner and the few weekends following Thanksgiving weekend.

Last year, Our Savior's gave about $1800 to these life changing gifts! Let's do it again! Could anyone on your Christmas list use baby chicks?

Fall Stewardship Ministry

Thanks to all who have submitted “statement of intent” cards for 2020. If you have not done that yet, we would love to hear from you! You should have received a card in the mail; if not, or if you can’t locate it, contact the office.

We are using statements of intent to determine our ministry goals and objectives for 2020, so your response is very important!

Thank you again – and thank you for all your support of our work together!

Lighting Project

At a special meeting on October 13, the congregation decided to move forward with a proposal to replace our current fluorescent lights with LED lamps. This move will save money, both in electrical use and in maintenance, and will also reduce our impact on the environment. Or, in other words, being “green” will save some “green!”

We are currently working with Upper90 Energy to finalize the details of the project. New lights should be with us soon!

Dear Ladies of the Mary & Martha Prayer Shawl Ministry Group, Thank you so much for the beautiful prayer shawl that you made and sent to Chris. The colors are beautiful and warm. Chris uses it on her lap when she's sitting and when she takes a nap it's open fully the length of her body. The prayer of Blessing is beautiful and I read it to Chris every day. Please continue to pray for Chris as she continues in rehab.

Hi Folks, Enclosed is a donation in memory of my dad, Robert (Bob) Sr. who died this past Thursday (9/26) at the WI Veterans Home in King. It was just a week ago (9/22) that I visited my dad and we agreed to send a donation in thanks for all your kind attention and fine ministries. As a pastor (UCC) myself, I deeply appreciate when anyone (especially a church) goes "the second mile." Thanks again for your ministry and encouragement(s) to my late mom and dad, likewise to the Pavelko's for bringing Dad to worship! I could say more, but "love" says it all. May your love increase in Christ's name, amen! Gratefully,

(Rev.) Robert Koepke, Jr.

Our Savior's Mission in the World Handbell Choirs

Another in a series of ministries in which we are engaged as part of our faithful stewardship and discipleship.

Bell ringing is one of the oldest forms of musical art. It is widely believed that the earliest “bells” were large slabs of stone suspended by leather straps and struck with wooden clubs. We’ve come a long way since then!

Our handbell choirs meet weekly from September through May and play for services about every six weeks. We have a three-octave set of Malmark handbells and a two-octave set of Suzuki hand chimes.

One of the challenges a handbell choir faces is the fact that each note is assigned to a specific person. If that person is not there, no one plays that note, which influences the group as a whole. As you can imagine, the level of commitment required by a player is considerable.

Handbells certainly add another dimension to the music of the church. There are so many techniques to master, so many new things to try, so much fun to be had. A group of individuals, working together to make music praising the Lord!

The next time you hear the bells, remember that this ministry happens because of you and your financial gifts. Thank you for your support that allows us to make beautiful music - together!

Congregation Council Review

The Congregation Council met on Monday, October 14, with President Ender calling the meeting to order. At this meeting the council:

- Engaged in discussion and prayer around the story of Jacob in Genesis 32:22-31.
- Approved the council minutes, and received financial reports and reports from the pastors, all for September. Also approved the minutes from the special congregational meeting.
- Discussed the LED lighting project in the building. Appointed Jeff Rich, Eric Iliff, and Carl Wallace to consider choices for fixtures.
- Heard an update on “Forward: Fearless and Faithful” and “Stewardship for All Seasons.”
- Decided to have the pastors assemble a team to review the Child Safe Policy. Heard that the Audit Committee will need to begin work shortly, and that a sample Sexual Harassment Policy will be sent out prior to the November meeting for review.
- Received into membership Scott and Sandra Horstman (transfer from Coon Valley), and Brenda Skittone (reactivation). Also received Jim Tocko as an Associate Member.
- Directed Judy Gilbert to explore some options for refurbishing vacuum cleaners or purchasing new units.
- Heard that synod assembly voting members should be selected sooner this year due to the election of a new bishop. Noted that since the constitution calls for them to be selected by the congregation, they should be elected at the 2020 annual meeting.
- Directed the pastors to develop a process for lifting up candidates for elected offices that involves the entire congregation, and to engage in that process during November.

The council meets again on Monday, November 11. See one of the pastors or Lynette Ender if you have any questions.
